

Gary Mitchell

over 25 years of complex programme turnaround and strategy delivery planning

1

STORY-FIRST business planning

"The business planning exercise enables management teams with a broad range of experience to capture and arrange their thoughts in to a coherent document which ensures alignment of thinking and a benchmark for future decisions. Giles Derry, Partner Dunedin

BUSINESS-LED technology vision

Gary works efficiently and rapidly without the usual jargon or consultant speak. He has a unique style which ensures teams are at their most relaxed and willing to contribute." Nicol Fraser, Partner Dunedin

BOARD-LEVEL strategy delivery dashboard

"I would highly recommend this approach to companies who need simple and pragmatic strategic plans and hands-on support to create very high quality, clear and useful plan documents." Michael Last, MD Formaplex

TURNAROUND

EXIT

"Gary Mitchell has worked with the management teams of a number of Dunedin portfolio companies to help them develop and communicate their strategic plans. His approach is to capture management's plans in a set of clear, concise slides which are easy to follow and quick to refer to. His assistance has been invaluable." Ross Marshall, Senior Partner, Dunedin

"the strategy document continues to be at the centre of our strategic and operational actions including budgets" Bob Blunden, CEO CET Group

"This exercise helped bring together the key people of our rapidly growing business under a common plan and a clear group identity." Patrick Gallagher, Chief Executive CitySprint
